

Students of the Month

November, 2011

SKYLER WEBB

Auto Service Technology
Perry Meridian High School

"Skyler shows others in class how excellent study habits and work ethics will help you succeed."

-Mr. Clark

JONATHON CONWELL

Auto Service Technology
Franklin Central High School

"Jonathon is a very respectful young man. He is a leader among his peers and will be an asset to the automotive repair industry."

-Mr. Huddleson

No
Picture
Available

Jesus Rasado

Auto Collision
Southport High School

"Jesus is a great student who does every assignment to the best of his ability. He is a role model student that lends a hand to others in need of assistance. He is a pleasure to have in class."

-Mr. Ross

SHELBY NEW

Bio Medical Science
Franklin Central High School

"Breanna demonstrates an eagerness to learn and brings a positive attitude to class each day. She is conscientious about her work, and assists other students. Most Notably, she is an example of confidence, kindness, and perseverance. Way of go Breanna!"

- Mrs. King

TORI MILLER

Culinary Arts
Perry Meridian High School

"Tori goes above and beyond her required daily duties. She's hardworking and maintains a positive attitude. It's an honor and a privilege to have her as a student."

-Chef Smith

IAN SMITH

Culinary Arts
Franklin Community High School

"Ian takes on additional responsibility, loves to learn anything culinary, and has a great attitude."

-Chef Traub

ZACH WHISNER

Culinary Arts
Perry Meridian High School

"Zack is the type of student who seems happiest when the restaurant is busiest, but when things are slow Zack always keeps himself busy."

-Chef Schubert

KAYELA MORRIS

Dental Assisting
Indian Creek High School

"Kayela 'Boots' is a good student that I can count on. She has great attendance and a high G.P.A.!"

-Mrs. Tunis

Students of the Month

November, 2011

EMILY DIAZ

Diesel Technology
Franklin Community High
School

"Emily chose to run as Skill USA chapter president for Transportation and was elected by her peers."

-Mr. Bair

JUSTIN BURNETTE

Drafting /CAD
Franklin Central High School

"Justin is dependable, a fast learner and always attentive."

-Mr. Boner

MATT JORDAN

Electronics Technology
Perry Meridian High School

"This 2 year Electronic Technology senior has shown leadership when needed and has maintained an "A" average for 2 years."

-Mr. Griffin

CANDACE MILLER

EMS
Indian Creek High School

"Candy shows leadership and responsibility. She will be an excellent EMT!"

- Mrs. Zimmer

No
Picture
Available

BROCK WHITCHER

Graphic Imaging
Beech Grove High School

"Brock goes above and beyond what is asked of him on a daily basis. He shows exceptional leadership skills by setting a great example for other students."

-Mrs. Jacobs and Mr. Magness

BAILEY DEVORE

Health Careers
Whiteland Community High
School

Bailey strives to do her utmost best in all that she undertakes in the classroom. She does an excellent job as our class's tour talker."

-Mr. Lawton

ASHLEY RIDGE

Health Careers
Whiteland Community High
School

"Ashley has shown compassion for her classmates by helping students that need extra help in the lab."

-Mrs. Karens

No
Picture
Available

KAETLYN KANTZ

Health Careers Practicum
Whiteland Community High
School

"Kaetlyn has demonstrated a positive outlook in all that she does. Her smile is contagious."

-Mrs. Lawton

Students of the Month

November, 2011

Anthony Golubski-Allen

Information Technology
Whiteland Community High
School

"Anthony is a hard worker that strides to complete his work ahead of due dates. If another student is struggling with a program he is willing to help without me having to ask."

-Mr. Paprocki

PAUL JANNICHE

Landscape Management
Perry Meridian High School

"Paul always goes above and beyond to do his best."

Mr. Ramey

ASHLEY GOLDMAN

Medical Assisting
Southport High School

"Ashley exhibits a lot of enthusiasm in her class which encourages her peers to come to class with that same attitude. She is always smiling and courteous."

-Mr. Pfeiffer

RICKY HALL

Law Enforcement
Indian Creek High School

"Ricky is a handworker and has great leadership skills."

-Mr. Shively

AMELIA TODD

Pre - Pharmacy
Perry Meridian High School

"Amelia is a quick learner and shares her knowledge with others. Students go to her for help, as she is always willing to go above and beyond to assist in whatever way she can."

-Mr. Ribelin

ZACHARY DRAPER

Precision Machining
Franklin Central High School

"Zack comes to school every-day ready to learn. He stays on task with every project."

-Mrs. Willoughby

JOSEPH IAMES

Recreational Portable Power
Equipment
Center Grove High School

"Joe comes to class with a positive attitude and works to maintain a good grade in class and over comes all obstacles."

-Mr. Trisler

No
Picture
Available

DANIEL HENDERSHOT

Pre - Engineering
Whiteland Community High
School

"Daniel has a straight "A", works on extra projects, and is a good worker. He also takes time to teach building skills to other students."

-Mr. Grambo

Students of the Month

November, 2011

MACY BOWMEN

Veterinary Assisting
Greenwood High School

“Macy is determined, talented, and very resourceful. She is an awesome asset to our class.”

Mrs. Smith

No
Picture
Available

KYLE PRESCOTT

Welding Technology
Franklin Central High School

“Kyle has a good work ethic, helpful in the shop and will have a great future in the welding field.”

-Mr. Phillips