

Students of the Month

April, 2013

Zach Odom

Auto Service Technology
Southport High School

“Zach’s positive attitude helps everyone around him.”

-Mr. Clark

Jacob Wade

Auto Service Technology
Perry Meridian High School

“Mr. Wade is a very respectable young man. He is eager to learn as well as being a team player. This young man will be a valuable employer to a business in his future.”

-Mr. Huddleson

Austin Wardwell

Auto Collision
Franklin Central High School

“Austin always keeps the moral of the class up beat and in a good mood.”

-Mr. Clow

Jessie Harville

Bio Medical Science
Beech Grove High School

” Jessie is always respectful and diligent. He shows determination and perseverance when it comes to BIOM labs, activities, and research.”

-Mrs. King

Alicia Monroy
Culinary Arts

Franklin Central High School

“Alicia is dependable and understands the complexity of the kitchen. She can handle the most difficult tasks with 100% professionalism and precision.”

-Chef Traub

Patrick Martin
Culinary Arts
Whiteland Community High School

“Because of his hard work, focus, and determined demeanor, Patrick has developed into a critical component in the collective engine of our culinary kitchen.”

-Chef Smith

Aerial Leibacher
Health Careers
Greenwood Community High School

“As a Student in Health Care Careers, Aerial has consistently displayed an interest in the field and has applied herself well in all her studies associated with these classes. Her detail on test/homework exceeds the standards.”

- Mr. Blackwell

Caitlyn Page
Dental Assisting
Franklin Central High School

“Caitlyn is the perfect student . She works hard and is always focused. Respect and patience are two character qualities that Caitlyn possess.”

-Mrs. Tunis

Students of the Month

April, 2013

Owen Wilson

Diesel Technology
Indian Creek High School

"Owen is a hard worker and role model for other students in class and lab tasks. He will do what it takes to find the answer."

-Mr. Bair

Kodiak McBrayer

Drafting /CAD
Beech Grove High School

"Kodiak represented the Drafting/CAD program at the Regional Skills USA championships and is determined to make Auto CAD part of his future.."

-Mr. Boner

William Garner

Electronics Technology
Franklin Central High School

"As a first year student Mr. Garner has excelled in class and with more hard work and perseverance. I look for him to be a leader in this class next year."

-Mr. Griffin

Will Meltabarger

EMS
Center Grove Community High School

"Will is a strong leader and is always willing to help. He has grown so much and is developing the skills needed to become a great EMT-B."

-Mrs. Zimmer

Michael Quilation

Graphic Imaging
Center Grove High School

"Michael is an excellent example of a student that stays on task, always gives 100%, and does so with a positive attitude."

-Mr. Magness and Mr. Briones

Mallory Denson

Health Careers Practicum
Greenwood Community High School

"Mallory demonstrates a tireless work ethic and consistently seeks a deeper understanding of academic material."

-Mrs. Lawton

Westin McCarty

Aviation Support
Franklin Central High School

"Westin continues to be a great student. His test scores are excellent!"

-Mr. Edwards

Johnathan Eickleberry

Building Trades Technology
Whiteland Community High School

"Johnathan is always on task and has a great work ethic."

-Mr. Everett

Students of the Month

April, 2013

Brad Jones

Information Technology
Whiteland Community High School

“As a first year student Brad always takes the opportunity to help out his fellow student and insure they have all assignments complete and turned in on time.”
-Mr. Paprocki

Eric Bullard

Landscape Management
Southport High School

“Westleigh is very dependable and enthusiastic when it comes to doing his class work. His wisdom and hard work shows in his daily decisions he makes.”

-Mr. Ramey

Jaymisha Allen

Medical Assisting
Southport High School

“Jaymisha has really worked hard this semester. She has become a big participant in class and has committed herself to her education, and has a great attitude.”

- Ms. Irish

Brett Kirk

Law Enforcement
Whiteland Community High School

“Brett is very loyal to the Law Enforcement program. He is a hard worker and shows great leadership skills.”

-Mr. Shively and Mr. Essex

Tre'von Sevion

Veterinary Assisting
Beech Grove High School

“Tre'von is hard working and determined. He is always motivated to do his best while encouraging his peers.”

-Mrs. Smith

Max Williams

Precision Machining
Whiteland Community High School

“Max is very anxious to learn CNC programming set up and operations. He has the ability to understand this technology and teach it to others.”

-Mr. Willoughby

Joe Birdsong

Pre-Engineering/PLTW
Franklin Community High School

“Joe has been a great help to myself and all of his other classmates while working with the CNC machines. Joe has gone above and beyond in learning and teaching the new CNC software.”
-Mr. Hoagland

Nick Blackard

Fire Science
Greenwood Community High School

“Nick understands his facts well, and performs well in class.”

-Mr. Brooks

Students of the Month

April, 2013

Tyler Trout

PCI
Whiteland Community High School

"Tyler is having a great semester both at his internship site and in the classroom."

-Mr. Weems

Annie Swaim
Health Careers

Indian Creek High School

"Annie comes to class everyday with a positive and mature attitude. She works hard and well with others. She is very caring towards her peers and is a joy to be around! Way to go Annith!"

-Mrs. Hagerty

Taylor Morris
PLTW/Bio Med/Pre Pharmacy
Whiteland Community High School

"Taylor is in the Pre-Pharmacy program. She is an attentive student that excels in the classroom. She is highly motivated and is a leader in the classroom. She has been accepted into the University of Kentucky Pharmacy program."

-Ms. Ribelin

Meghan McMahon

Health Careers
Whiteland Community High School

"Meghan is an extremely hard worker and her grades reflect this effort. Her pleasant demeanor, modesty and high level of integrity all benefit her both in and out of the classroom."

-Mrs. Lawton

Justin Groce

Welding Technology
Perry Meridian High School

"Thomas is always energetic and eager to talk about the welding class to perspective students."

-Mr. Martindale

Hannah Bradley

Cosmetology
Center Grove High School

"Hannah is working super hard and making huge changes in her progress and work ethic!"

-Paul Mitchell

Will Kowgitz

Culinary Arts
Southport High School

"Will is a considerate and ceaselessly helpful member of the kitchen. No matter what station Will is assigned, you can be sure the task will be executed thoroughly and with professional consistency."

-Chef Lopez