Curriculum and Instruction

Curriculum and Instruction

- Curriculum and Instruction committee did a review of standing goals. The group offered the following suggestions for school year 2013-14:
  - Use Survey Monkey to find out needs of staff for mini sessions
  - Offer sessions on creating a classroom management template

Professional Development

- The Professional Development Committee would like to have the High Schools That Work attendees share ideas gained from this summer's conference in a brief presentation in the Fall. The committee would like to use these topics to expand/update the professional development plan for the school year 2013-14.

Textbooks

- Followed up with instructors to collect textbook information and determine needs for the 2013-14 school year.
- DRAFT of Textbook Fee Chart updated
- Teachers have an approved PO# to order books
- Spreadsheet of text information updated and placed in the front of binder

Guidance

- Central Nine Tour

On May 4, 2012, the Guidance Office hosted a tour of the school for The Red Hat Society of Greenwood (Mrs. Boeham, Sponsor).

- Guidance Monthly Meeting

On May 3rd, Erin hosted the last guidance meeting of the school year. At the meeting, enrollment was discussed. Erin shared which programs had openings. Erin also handed out a list of former PLACE students. Erin asked counselors to look at those lists and reach out to those students to see if they were still interested in coming to Central Nine. Also discussed Online@ C9 and Early College.

- Awards Day

Awards day was held May 9th.

- Online @C9/Early College

Erin has been working with students, counselors and Ivy Tech to get those students interested, qualified and signed up for class. Erin tested six students, and there are four enrolled and ready to go in the fall. Erin has also worked with Ivy Tech to set up an orientation time for the students so they start off on the right foot. Orientation day is scheduled for August 19th.

- Scheduling

Erin continues to work with sending school counselors to fill openings.
