

Student of the Month October, 2014

Tyler Kornbroke
Auto Service Technology
Indian Creek High School

"Mr. Kornbroke is always prepared and ready for class. He also does a great job of helping other students that may be struggling with the topic we are discussing. Mr. Kornbroke is looked at as a leader by his classmates."

-Mr. Owen

Kevin Stephenson
Auto Service Technology
Greenwood Community High School

"Mr. Stephenson shows the maturity and organizational skills that make him stand out and will earn him the respect he deserves."

-Mr. Clark

Stephen Gregory
Fire and Rescue
Center Grove High School

"Stephen is a good student who understands what it takes to become a good firefighter both in the classroom and on the training ground."

-Mr. Tiemeyer

Aaron Latham
Auto Collision Technology
Southport High School

"Aaron is a second year student in Auto Collision Repair Technology. He has been helpful in having past knowledge of what equipment and tools the program had last year and where it might be stored. Aaron has been willing to experience and participate in many activities and projects that the class has been working on this year and has been willing to stay after class to finish some of the projects that got started but not finished for the day. Aaron has a sincere interest in learning the Skills associated with being successful in Auto Collision Repair Technology."

-Mr. Callico

Sierra Cotton
Culinary Arts
Franklin Central High School

"As a second year in culinary, Sierra has proven herself to be a strong leader in both the classroom as well as the kitchen. She is consistently on time and prepared to serve our guests in the restaurant."

-Chef Hurst

Melissa Caito
Dental Careers
Beech Grove High School

"Melissa is a very good student. She is always on task, has great grades, and good attendance. Melissa's rendition of Dean Vaughn won 1st place out of both classes. GREAT JOB MELISSA!"

-Mrs. Tunis

Student of the Month October, 2014

10/6/2014

Malsawn Sanga

Electronics and
Computer Technology I
Southport High School

"Malsawn always stays on topic in the classroom and shows great work ethic on whatever classroom or lab project he is working on."

-Mr. Mullikin

Shelby Darland

Health Science I
Franklin Community High School

"Shelby Darland is in the morning Health Science class. She always helps me out when we are doing a lab, passing out items, mixing things, or washing the dishes. She is dependable, respectful, and trustworthy. She is a leader in the classroom and will help other students out when needed. She is a great student!"

-Ms. Ribelin

Ashten Oliver

Health Science Education II
Nursing
Perry Meridian High School

"Ashten has demonstrated consistently her passion for the health care profession as well as superb character qualities of self-control and responsibility. She takes great pride in the work that she accomplishes and performs it to the best of her ability at all times. She brings a strong work ethic to her clinical rotation"

-Mrs. Lawton

Harley Brown

Culinary Arts
Beech Grove High School

"Harley has been indispensable in the kitchen, demonstrating a tenacious drive to learn all she can about culinary arts. Keep up the hard work, Harley!"

-Chef Smith

Cory Schoch

EMS
Franklin Central High School

"Cory is a second year student who comes prepared to class daily with uniform and class supplies. Cory is very respectful to his peers and C9 staff. He is a team player and excels at PT training. He ran the fastest mile this year and will be an asset to the Public Safety Profession."

-Mrs. Zimmer

Jonathan Icenogle

Landscape Management
Center Grove High School

"Jon always gives a 110%. He goes that extra to help out his class mates and to improve his skills."

-Mr. Ramey

Student of the Month October, 2014

10/6/2014

Tierra Hernandez
Medical Assisting
Greenwood Community High School

"Tierra is a wonderful student. She is always supportive of her classmates and will do anything to help her peers. She maintains a positive attitude and is a wonderful asset in my class."

-Ms. Irish

Candace Danz
Bio Medical Science
Indian Creek High School

"Candace Danz is a model of cooperation, collaboration, respect and engagement. She is a sincere and hard working individual, and an ideal student. She shows an aptitude for learning, is able to complete her work even when multi-tasking on two or more projects, and has a charming personality."

-Mrs. King

Manuel Tapia
Criminal Justice
Perry Meridian High School

"Manuel is a very respectful young man. He is a leader that is consistently working to his full potential in class. I appreciate his hard work and dedication."

-Mrs. Webster-Harris

Austin Hable
Diesel Technology
Greenwood Community High School

"Austin is here early every day properly dressed and works hard."

-Mr. Anderson

Tyler Johnson
Precision Machining
Whiteland Community High School

"Tyler has been a great help teaching first year students how to safely and correctly machine the assigned projects."

-Mr. Willoughby

Logan Howard
Advanced Manufacturing
Indian Creek High School

"Logan has been a valuable asset to myself and the other student while working in our first industrial maintain rotation."

-Mr. Hoagland

Student of the Month

October, 2014

Bailey Spurlin
Veterinary Careers
 Franklin Central High School

"Bailey is a diligent and determined student. She is focused and very involved in class."

-Mrs. Smith

Brian Breeden
Computer Programming
 Greenwood Community High School

"Brian is a second year student in the program. He has taken off with the concept of working at you own pace in computer repair. He has finished the entire semester of lab projects and review questions before the end of the first nine weeks. He uses his extra time in class to help other students and tear apart computers for recycling."

-Mr. Paprocki

Kayla Vickous
Visual Communications
 Perry Meridian High School

"Kayla has been a tremendous example helping out where ever needed as well as always being on top of her projects and assignments."

-Mr. Magness & Mr. Briones

Benjamin Aylara
Work-Based Learning
 Whiteland Community High School

"Ben has the following qualities: Cooperative, Attentive, Goal Directed, and Self Discipline, A great asset to the Work- Based Learning Program."

-Ms. Brantley

Kristen Schneider
Health Science I
 Beech Grove High School

"Kirsten is a hard worker, resourceful student that always has a smile on her face. She always displays a positive attitude and outlook on any project sent her way. "

-Mrs. Milewski

Gavin Winters
Construction Trades
 Whiteland Community High School

"Gavin has been my go-to guy for projects needing extra attention on the jobsite. He has embraced leadership in class by demonstrating to first year students what he is doing and helps them to better understand why they are doing what they are doing. He is consistently on-time and ready to work when it is time to work and he is attentive at times of teaching."

-Mr. Morton

Student of the Month October, 2014

10/6/2014

Jordan Bell

Welding Technology
Center Grove High School

"Jordan has shown a positive attitude toward his work and his classmates. He has shown positive leadership qualities within the classroom."

-Mr. Lynch

Mikayla Fidler

Criminal Justice
Perry Meridian High School

"Mikayla is a second year Criminal Justice student who has greatly improved. She has been working very hard this year to improve her grades and her skills."

-Mr. Mitchell

Ben Daily

Aviation Operations
Perry Meridian High School

"Ben is one of my best students academically. His interest in aviation has been evident since day one. He has made presentations that have not only been informative but also very entertaining! Ben is a great student have in class."

-Mr. Edwards

Mark Masiliunis

Health Science II –
Pre-Pharmacy
Franklin Central High School

"Mark is in the Pre-Pharmacy class. He is respectful, dependable, and always gets his work done. He is going to pursue a degree as a Nurse Practitioner. He will make a great nurse."

-Mrs. Ribelin