This Month's Highlights

Curriculum and Instruction

Staffing:

No changes

Teacher Evaluations:

We are finishing up on the final round of teacher observations and evaluations this week. Observations for any staff members that need additional data will occur between now and Spring Break. Staff will be submitting their artifacts prior to Spring Break. Summative Evaluation meetings will occur just after Spring Break.

Professional Development:

Tom Jacobs, Bill Clark, Kevin Hurst, Steve Owen attended the TCTW Leaders Forum January 26-29 in Point Clear, AL. They learned about Simulated Workplaces, and Enhanced CT (PBL for CTE). The team shared that we are already implementing elements of both programs. We are doing things well here at C9, and a lot of schools were looking to us for advice and guidance.

TCTW:

Dr. Edds and Mrs. Otte met with Lynda Jackson with TCTW today, and she reviewed our Focus Team submitted Strategic Plans. We will meet with the Focus Team Leaders to review the compiled strategic plan overview.

Teachers:

- Mr. Ramey was awarded an Award of Merit by the Indiana Nursery & Landscape Association during the Green Expo in January.
- See the attached article from Indy South Magazine written by our very own Culinary Instructor, Chef Clint Smith.

Principal

Students:

- Paul Mitchell-Cosmetology School-several visits with students
- Paul Mitchell is having its Open House February, 13th, 2015 from 6-7pm to the Public as well as to all current C9 student and potential students interested in attending.
- 2 of our students: Abbie Thompson & Casey Petty are in Las Vegas, Nevada for a national cosmetology convention for one week due to their outstanding work at Cosmetology School. (CAPER BAG)-selling of products
- Auto Service students took their Ford AAA Auto Skills test Thursday, February 5th to see if any will advance nationally to compete.
- NTHS-Having an Executive Committee to determine activities for the spring
- Teachers have done a great job preparing our students for careers in their respective fields. We had a lot of success at Skills USA Competition last weekend. 15 students placed, and 9 others received AYES, bringing the total number of C9 students competing at the State SkillsUSA Competition in April to 24 students! <http://central9.k12.in.us/blog/>
- January Field Trips – Culinary Arts (Ivy Tech Community College), Landscape (Green Expo), Health Science (HOSA Winter Rally)

Principal:

- Great meeting last week with all of the principals from sending schools.
- I am working on visits to Building Trades site & Paul Mitchell cosmetology over the next two months before school ends. Very neat for principals to see their students working and see what they are doing on a daily basis.

Student Services

MARKETING/RECRUITING

- Glenn attended the informational meeting for Aviation Operations students and parents.
- Karin delivered classroom presentations for students at James Whitcomb Riley (Perry Alternative Academy)
- Glenn and Karin delivered classroom presentations for Southport Community High School – Mrs. Jordan's Family Consumer class.

- Glenn supported the bi-monthly marketing and recruiting efforts at Southport during lunch periods. During the visit he was not able to locate the C9 Brochure Rack, he was informed that the rack was no longer being utilized. He will work with Guidance Office to reinstitute the brochure rack for better visibility.

ADMINISTRATION – HIGH SCHOOL OFFICE

- Karin completed one monthly visit with Paul Mitchell students. Discussed performance and responsibilities with the group and then had individual meeting with each student. Several students continue to have performance related concerns. I received updated advisory forms (i.e. discipline/coaching) for each student. Parental contacted has been made from the personnel of Paul Mitchell; however, I will also contact the parents.
- Glenn and Karin distributed the enrollment forms - 2015-16 to current students, together we began advising students on placement for next year. Glenn assembled the forms and placed information on a form - Google Drive Document . Information is collated by schools. More forms from returning students are needed.

Supportive Services

- Karin hosted the monthly guidance counselor's meeting; Advanced Culinary Arts students prepared a scrumptious meal. Chefs Hurst and Swopes presented information about the second semester curriculum. Students were guest presenters.
- Karin began on-boarding with the new Student Services Coordinator – Glenn Weil
- Karin created a training schedule for Glenn. He shadowed many activities, on boarding will continuing throughout January and into February as the year brings new challenges.
