

April 2015

Student of the Month

Dylan Henselmeier
Auto Collision Repair Technology
Center Grove High School

"Dylan keeps himself busy and applies himself. Dylan does what he is asked to do and enjoys learning new processes. He analyzes what he has done in the past and what adjustments he needs to make to improve on what he is trying to achieve."

-Mr. Callico

Andrew Creek
Automotive Service Technology
Franklin Central High School

"Andrew has the best people skills that I've ever seen, combined with his positive attitude makes each day in class an adventure! Thanks Andrew and Good Luck!"

-Mr. Clark

Kasey Knowles
Automotive Service Technology
Perry Meridian High School

"Kasey has done a great job in the classroom and lab. He is always ready for class and works well with his class mates."

-Mr. Owen

Holly Wills
Bio-Medical Science
Whiteland Community High School

"Holly Wills was chosen for improving dramatically in her academics. She gives great effort with a great attitude, is always punctual and diligent and she shows respect to others by managing her time and finishing her work."

-Mrs. King

Xavier Brown
Culinary Arts
Whiteland Community High School

"Though a student of few words, Xavier allows his work ethic speaks for itself. Xavier maintains a dependable, "Yes Chef" attitude and his willingness to thoroughly and professionally carry out tasks is an ideal example for his peers."

-Chef Smith

Ashlyn Jones
Culinary Arts
Whiteland Community High School

"I have seen Ashlyn grow tremendously over the course of this year, both as a person and as a Culinarian. Ashlyn has a great future ahead of her in Culinary"

-Chef Hurst

Abbee Eastham
Dental Careers
Indian Creek High School

"Abbee is an absolute joy to have in class. She has exemplary grades and attendance. I look forward to following her career in dentistry."

- Mrs. Tunis

Billy Skinner
Diesel Service Technology
Center Grove High School

"Billy works hard to complete all tasks that is assigned to him. He is becoming a skilled truck & diesel technician."

-Mr. Anderson

Jordin Coryell
Electronics & Computer Technology
Greenwood Community High School

"Jordin has been my official volunteer this year volunteering as my tour talker for the PM class and helping out on open house night. He is always willing to lend a helping hand when needed."

-Mr. Mullikin

JR Cutrell
Health Science II – Nursing
Center Grove High School

"JR has demonstrated a passion for the health care profession. JR continues to sets high goals for himself. He has consistently displayed his willingness to help others both in the classroom and in the internship setting. His enthusiasm for Health Careers is evident."

-Mrs. Lawton

Lonnie Hood
Emergency Medical Services
Franklin Central High School

"Lonnie is always prepared for EMS class and is looked up to among his peers. Lonnie has been a leader in our Ems/Fire programs for 2 years. He is well prepared for class and professional to all the Instructors in the field."

- Mrs. Zimmer

Da'Kaira Stevens
Visual Communications
Perry Meridian High School

"Da'Kaira is a very quiet and focused student. She is always on task, on time and willing to take on extra work to help any way she can. She is a very pleasant person to be around and a pleasure to have in class."

- Mr. Magness & Mr. Briones

Nick Tsley

Work-Based Learning
Greenwood Community High School

"Nick is an asset to the Work-Based Learning Program. Nick's WBL mentor says Nick is an outstanding worker."

- Mrs. Brantley

Sarah Sombrio

Health Science I
Whiteland Community High School

"Sarah is a bright young lady who is always ready to help out when anyone needs it. She is a hardworking student that will go far in the Health Care arena. There is not a day that goes by with out a smile on her face. "

- Mrs. Milewski

Sam Polley

Computer Programming
Southport High School

"Sam has started a job shadow with National Trade Supply Company and his employer was so impressed they offered him an internship, before the job-shadow was complete. Sam has possible employment after he graduates from school with the company."

-Mr. Paprocki

Eric Bullard

Landscape/Horticulture Management
Southport High School

"Eric has a great work ethic, very dependable, patient, and truthful. He is the President of Central Nines FFA and Central Nine's National Technical Honor Society"

-Mr. Ramey

Christopher Jameson

Criminal Justice
Southport High School

"Christopher quietly has exemplified himself this year in academics as well as tactical training. Christopher is an example to other students in the areas of respect, maturity and study habits. He will embrace his higher education with enthusiasm. Christopher is a valued asset to the C-9 community."

-Mr. Mitchell

Alex Cawthorne

Fire & Rescue
Southport High School

"Alex almost didn't stay in our program after the first week and now he is already accepted to a university in Florida to continue his education in Fire Science. Alex is a prime example of where hard work and dedication can get you too."

-Mr. Tiemeyer

Lauren McCarty
Health Science II –Medical Assisting
 Whiteland Community High School

"Lauren is a very good student. She is consistent in her class work and always ready to help with any task that needs done. She has a very good work ethic."

-Mrs. Irish

AJ Barr
Advanced Manufacturing
 Franklin Community High School

"A.J. has been a positive leader throughout this year and a major contributor to our EV Grand prix race team."

-Mr. Hoagland

Casey Linderman
Construction Trades
 Franklin Central High School

"Casey has constantly maintained a positive mental attitude throughout this entire school year. He has demonstrated that he is reliable on the jobsite and consistently follows classroom policies and safety procedures without needing reminders. His willingness to learn is exemplary of what an ideal Central 9 student is."

-Mr. Morton

Max Jennett
Precision Machine Technology
 Franklin Community High School

"Max has been on an internship since the beginning of the school year. He always has excellent evaluations from his employer at Pro Industries."

-Mr. Willoughby

Jessica Drummond
Veterinary Careers
 Franklin Central High School

"Jessica is a great student who volunteers to help others in class. She is diligent in her work and sets a great example."

-Mrs. Smith

Tayler Waite
Welding Technology
 Center Grove High School

"Tayler has developed into a skilled welder. She has progressed to a level that she should be proud of."

-Mr. Lynch

Brandi Barnett
Criminal Justice
 Greenwood Community High School

"Brandi is a very determined young lady. She is focused in class and keeps her classmates in line as our second Class Sergeant. She is very disciplined and a great role model to the other students. I am very proud of her progress in this course."

-Mrs. Webster-Harris

Katelyn Kiemeyer
Health Science II-Pre-Pharmac
 Franklin Community High School

"Katelyn Kiemeyer is a Senior in the Pre-Pharmacy program. She is going to pursue a career as a Registered Nurse upon graduation. She is dependable and is diligent in getting her work done on time. She will be a great Registered Nurse."

-Mrs. Ribelin

Laura Breeden
Health Science I
 Greenwood Community High School

"Laura Breeden is a Junior in the Health Science 1 class. She is always positive and has a smile on her face. She is determined to do well in class and is very diligent about getting assignments done on time. She always brightens the day!"

-Mrs. Ribelin