

November 2015 Students of the Month

ANGEL CASIMIRO

Advanced Manufacturing
Southport High School

"Angel is always the first student to ask for something else to work on after he has completed his given assignment. Angel also has a great work ethic that will help him to succeed in whatever he chooses to do in life."

-Mr. Hoagland

CALEB KUHN

Auto Service Technology
Greenwood High School

"Mr. Kuhn is resourceful and ready to learn. He has figured it out already!"

-Mr. Clark

JAROD BLAKEY

Auto Service Technology
Perry Meridian High School

"Mr. Blakey does a great job in the classroom as well as the lab. He is always willing to help and is prepared for class."

-Mr. Owen

MYO TOE A LAI THANG

Auto Collision Repair
Southport High School

"Myo is a second year student with a true desire to learn as much as he possibly can. He always has a positive attitude and is willing to assist and help out in anyway possible. He has shown true leadership qualities by leading by example. This Myo's second time of being selected as Outstanding Student of the Month! Myo has excelled academically as well as with the "Hands On" learning aspect of the Auto Collision Repair Technology Program."

-Mr. Callico

Anthony Hunter

Aviation Operations
Beech Grove High School

"Anthony has been a stellar student and classroom leader this month. He is working on a bright future as an Air Force aircraft mechanic!"

-Mr. Edwards

November 2015 Students of the Month

ALYSSA LAND

Biomedical Science
Whiteland High School

"What's not to love about Alyssa! She is the happiest and most positive student...She brightens up the BIOM classroom through her awesome smile and talented "voice". She is hardworking, thorough, very disciplined, kind, and genuine. She acts immediately and goes the extra mile to complete her labs and assignments."

-Mrs. King

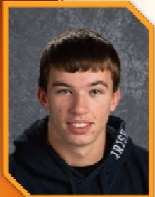

BEN ROEDER

Computer Programming
Center Grove High School

"Ben is a zero hour student who comes to Central 9 at 7 a.m. for class. He has not been late or absent once this semester. He is always willing to help out one of his fellow classmates without me having to ask him. Ben is the go to student when anyone has a question about coding. He is also competing in Computer Programming in Skills USA."

-Mr. Paprocki

LANE VORIS

Construction Trades
Franklin Comm. High School

"Lane has become a leader by example in my class. He is hard working, respectful, punctual, and has maintained an "A" average this year. I look forward to seeing what the future holds for Lane."

-Mr. Wormann

NHIYA CARTER-KAUFMAN

Culinary Arts-Advanced
Perry Meridian High School

"Not only is Nhiya a solid student academically, she also provides effective and positive leadership both in the dining room and the kitchen"

-Chef Hurst and Chef Swopes

AUSTIN WISE

Culinary Arts
Southport High School

"Returning from surgery at the beginning of the semester, Austin diligently worked through the discomfort of physical-rehab and remained determined to accomplish everything he could to maintain a dependable work ethic. After completing the essential tasks on his assigned station, Austin frequently pursues other areas of the kitchen which require attention and assists until the job is done."

-Chef Smith

MICHAEL TOTTON

Criminal Justice I
Franklin Central High School

"Michael always has a great attitude in class and is a great motivator for his classmates."

-Mrs. Thompson

November 2015 Students of the Month

BRETT DANT

Criminal Justice II
Greenwood High School

"Brett is such a nice, quiet young man. Brett has used his adversity to become stronger and not use it as an excuse to fail. He works very hard to better himself. He also took it upon himself to seek help for another person that was in need. Brett has the makings of a great police officer!"

-Mr. Fields

JUSTEEN JONES

Dental Careers
Perry Meridian High School

"Justeen is a second year student. She is the winner of the "Draw Jane Vaughn" contest. First place won the honor of Student of the Month for November. Good work Justeen!"

-Mrs. Tunis

JONATHON SETTLES

Electronics & Computer
Networking
Southport High School

"Jonathon is a hard worker who gets his work done on time and has maintained an A average this year. He is a pleasure to have in class and I am positive he will move on to better things!"

-Mr. Mullikin

CODY CARTER

Emergency Medical Services
Beech Grove High School

"Cody is always prepared for EMS class and steps up to help his peers. He is motivated and will benefit the Public Safety Profession. His hard work and dedication is appreciated by the CERT instructors."

-Mrs. Zimmer

LAKE VIEWEGH

Fire and Rescue
Whiteland High School

"Lake is a pleasure to have in class. He steps up and takes on anything that is asked of him and his class. As a squad leader, Lake takes responsibility for his squad and is a fine leader."

-Mr. Tiemeyer

COLBY DUNN

Health Science I
Franklin Central High School

"Colby is in the Health Science I program. He is a dedicated and a hard working student. He is one of our Student Ambassadors. He is respectful, dependable and is helpful to other students. He is always positive and has a smile on his face each day. A pleasure to have in class!"

-Mrs. Milewski

November 2015 Students of the Month

KAITLYN BREWER

Health Science I
Whiteland High School

"Kaitlyn Brewer is a junior from Whiteland High School who is in the Health Science I class. Kaitlyn is determined to do her best and is committed to reaching her goals. She is a Student Ambassador for our class and is a great student!"

-Miss Pam

DEJA HARRIS

Health Science II-Nursing
Southport High School

"Deja is a responsible, respectful and kind, young lady—a student who leads by example and determination. She treats residents, staff and peers with respect. Her inward desire to do her best is evident."

-Mrs. Lawton

JOHN MEFFORD

Landscape Management
Indian Creek High School

"Mr. Mefford has a mature and professional attitude at all times. He gives a 100% everyday."

-Mr. Ramey

SIERRA ARTHUR

Medical Assisting
Greenwood High School

"Sierra is always willing to help in the classroom. She is engaged in class activities and is a very motivated driven student. Sierra is a pleasure to have in class."

-Mrs. Pfeiffer

AUSTIN DICKEY

Precision Machining
Franklin Central High School

"Austin is on a paid internship at Precision Products, Inc. He continues to get great evaluations from his employer."

-Mr. Willoughby

SKYE SCOTT

Veterinary Careers
Whiteland High School

"Skye has already excelled with the academic and skill portion of the class. However, she is also putting in extra time to prepare and volunteer for HOSA. Miss Scott is an excellent mentor for PLACE students and does a great job as a student ambassador."

-Mrs. Smith

November 2015 Students of the Month

HAYLEE NICHOLSON

Visual Communications
Perry Meridian High School

"As a second year student and mentor, Haylee has shown respect and the right attitude to succeed in our program. She is always ready to help anyone and is developing a very good work ethic."

-Mr. Magness & Mr. Briones

KENNETH ISON

Welding Technology
Perry Meridian High School

"Kenneth is always taking on extra work. He gets his projects finished and then continues working on things to improve the room. Also, he works after school helping with the donations from industry."

-Mr. Wiley

JAMES PATRICK

Work-Based Learning
Southport High School

"James is a hard worker, he is motivated and a solid student and intern."

-Mrs. Brantley

