Professional Development:

Principals, Counselors, and Curriculum Directors met on Dec. 2. Attendees were served lunch by our Advanced Culinary students. Topics discussed included 2016-17 Courses, additions, Enrollment, Early College, and Collaboration with our Sending School CTE Teachers in Ag, Business, FACS, and Tech Ed.

Principal

Students:

First Semester is winding down and students are beginning to prepare for semester finals in their classes with instructors.

Mr. Hoagland, Advanced Manufacture teacher working with students on building their new C9 go kart for the High School E.V. Grand Prix. Students will have a chance to race go kart against several high schools from around the state of Indiana along with several colleges/universities from around the country.

One of C9's new Criminal Justice teachers preparing students for the weekly task and assignments. Mr. Fields is doing an excellent job reaching our students and staying engaged in daily lessons/lectures during class time.

Mrs. Smith getting involved with lab experiments with her students during Veterinary Assisting class.

Ms. Pam Ribelin, Health Careers Instructor demonstrating an autopsy of a deer heart with her students during lab time. Students were learning about the construction, makeup, and breakdown of the heart system.

Finally, C9 staff had a great time during our bi-weekly "Popcorn Friday" session. It is a great time for us as a staff to relax at the end of the week and interact with each other on a more personal level. This past session, staff participated by taking pictures with Santa Claus who made a visit to the area, and we took a fun filled C9 staff picture for the "Christmas Holidays".

Principal Note:

I have been studying with advisors from Indiana State on taking and completing the new Administrators test they now offer once finishing the required courses to become an administrator in State of Indiana and United States. I will be taking my test at the end of December at the Pyramids of Michigan Road.
