This Month's Highlights

Curriculum and Instruction

Staffing:

Karin Graves, Student Services Coordinator, and Kathy Steele, Media Specialist, have submitted resignations. We will be posting these positions and conducting interviews over the next couple of weeks.

Evaluation:

Round 1 of observations have begun. Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Preda, and Mr. Quaranta have been holding pre and post observation conferences prior to and after visiting classrooms. As evaluators, we have noticed the current tool does not focus a great deal on instruction, which we believe is key. An evaluation committee is being put together to work on increasing the effectiveness of the tool for next year.

Advisory Board Banquet

On Thursday, September 15 Central Nine held the annual Advisory Board Banquet for industry partners, students, teachers, and community members. Great conversations were had and a wonderful meal was provided by our Culinary Arts students and teachers.

I-ACTE Conference

Several teachers attended the I-ACTE Conference in Indianapolis in September. A wide array of CTE related sessions were offered. General sessions on technology tips and classroom management strategies were also offered. New teachers benefitted from sessions related to Workplace Specialist licensing.

Cluster Trainings:

Mr. Tom Jacobs has started cluster trainings with teachers. He is working with teachers on student learning styles and breaking up the block.

Endress + Hauser Community Career & Education Forum

Central Nine spoke with hundreds of middle school students at Endress + Hauser's Community Career & Education Forum on Thursday, October 6. Many students from the community learned about C9 and all of the amazing programs we offer. This was a powerful recruitment event and an exciting preview of Central Nine's future student body.

Culinary on WRTV 6

Chef Tiffany Swopes and her Culinary Arts students were in the spotlight again. They were featured on a segment during the 7:00 news on WRTV 6. A link to the video can be found here: <http://www.theindychannel.com/video?videoId=1888399180> They did an excellent job representing Central Nine.
