Shea is a very hard-working student and is always willing to participate in class. She does a great job of staying on task and completing her classwork in a timely manner. Shea works well with others in class and is always willing to assist those around her if they need it. She is very polite, and usually says "thank you or have a good day", on her way out the door at the end of class. For all these reasons and more, She is more than worthy of being November's Criminal Justice I student of the month.
